

Drafting 101 Continued - April 21, 2010; 11:30 AM - 1:00 PM CST

In the third session of our four-part series, we will focus our discussion on Incoterms (2000) delivery terms, termination of international agreements, and dispute resolution options in international contracting.

1. Title/Delivery Terms/Using Incoterms
 - a. How Incoterms are adopted into contracts
 - b. Specifics of each term
 - c. Filling in gaps
 - d. Which terms are now obsolete
 - e. Which terms to avoid
 - f. Likely future changes to Incoterms and use for domestic transactions

2. Termination and Dispute Resolution
 - a. Drafting termination and closeout clauses in an international arena
 - b. Drafting dispute resolution clauses
 - i. Choice of law
 - ii. Choice of forum
 - iii. Choice of resolution method
 - c. Termination for convenience clauses
 - d. Litigation in an international setting
 - e. Enforcement of awards